Father's Day

Playing rugby, basketball, cricket, climbing trees, riding a bike, learning how to drive, fishing, and sharing annoying dad jokes. These cherished memories encapsulate the essence of growing up with our fathers, our Dads. While I didn't have the privilege of growing up with my biological father, I was fortunate to have strong male role models who guided me in understanding my own masculinity. The role of fathers is paramount in nurturing a child, just as mothers provide their love. It's the firm yet caring guidance of fathers that shapes our character.

In the Bible, God is often referred to as Aba, Father. This isn't merely to depict a master-servant relationship, but to signify God's desire for a familial bond with us. While God is our Lord, He also wants us to recognize ourselves as His children.

As St. Paul wrote to the Corinthians:

"I will be a Father to you,
 and you will be my sons and daughters,
 says the Lord Almighty."

May the most amazing Father of all, God, bestow His blessings upon and guide the incredible fathers in our Parish Community.

Happy Father's Day."

Why do dads who golf always take an extra pair of socks?"

"In case they get a hole in one!"
